“ This port city prepares to stake its claim as a modern capital of culture.”

The New York Times

“Rotterdam will add yet another novelty architectural flourish to its skyline of giant pencils, topsy-turvy cubes and huge mirrored bowls next year.”

The Guardian

THE  INDEPENDENT

“Two important openings are poised to turn Rotterdam into a museum destination.”

TIMES

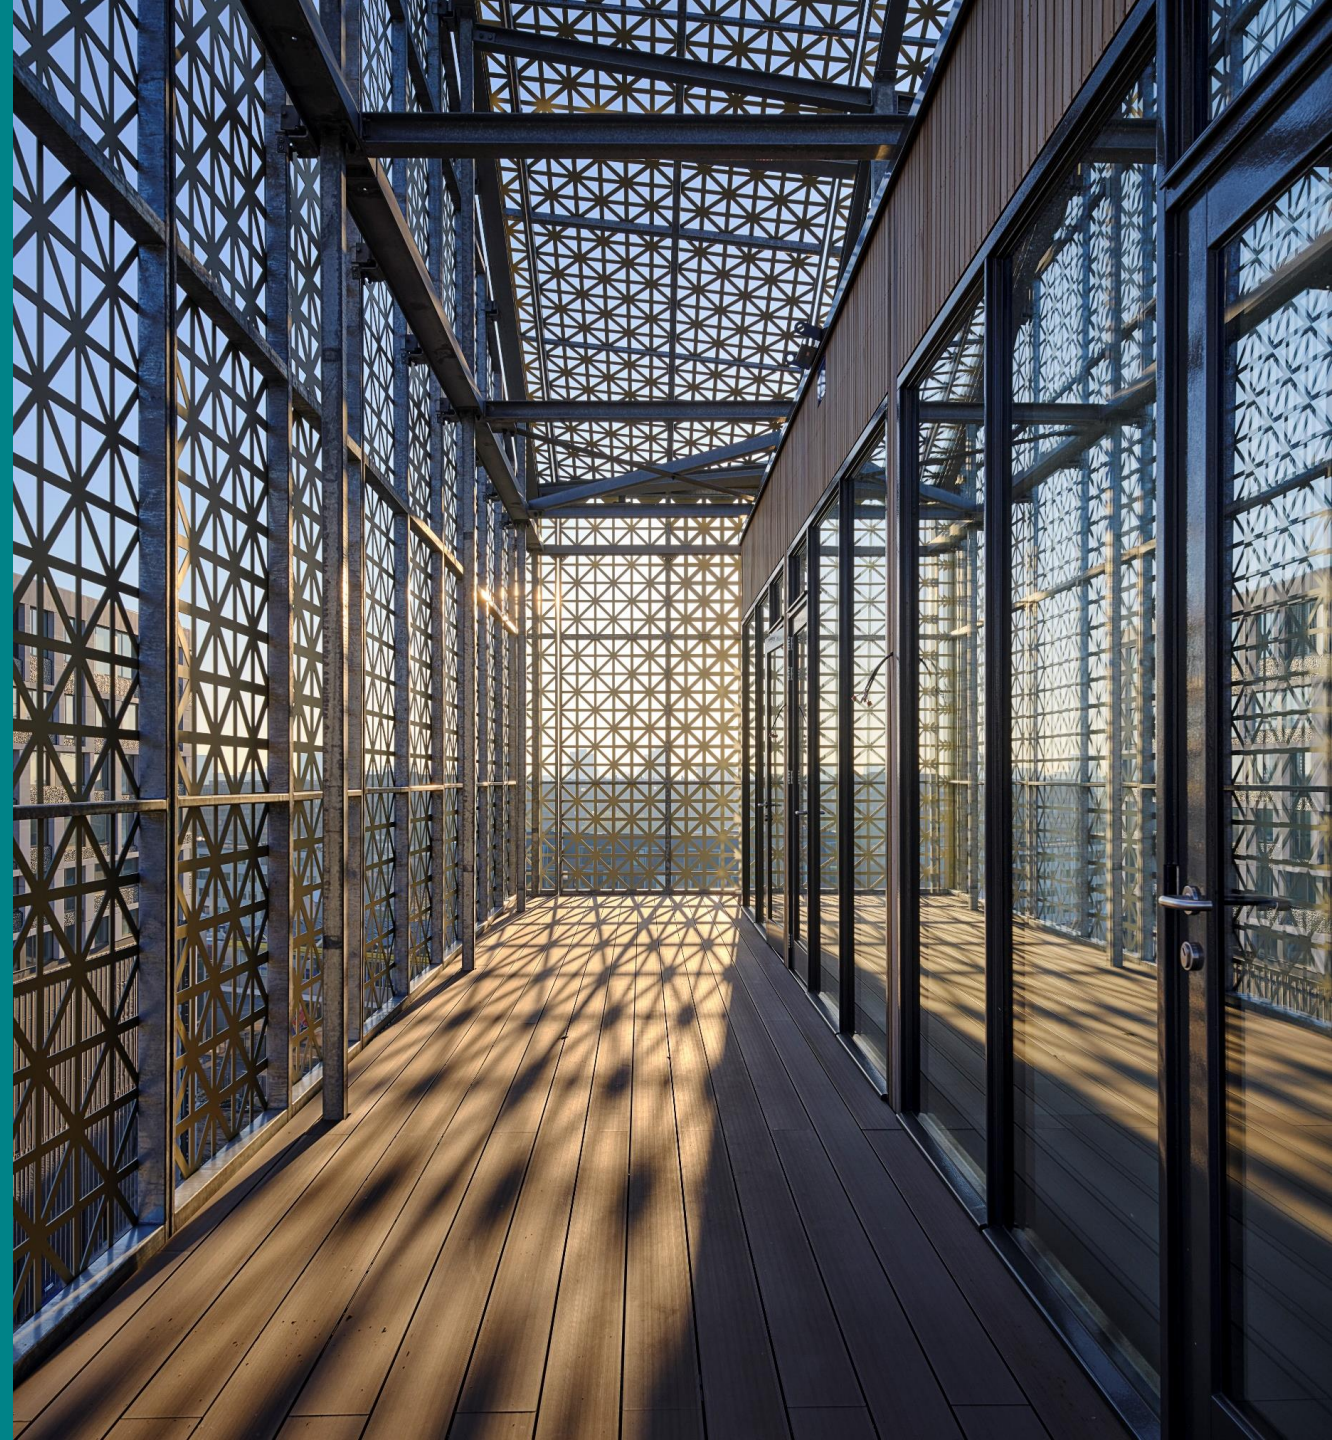

“Two important openings are poised to turn Rotterdam into a museum destination. The first, Fenix, in a former warehouse repurposed by Beijing-based MAD architects (...) Also reopening towards the end of the year in the former Santos coffee warehouse is the national Museum of Photography, which has 6.5 mn images in its collection, making it one of the largest in the world.”
